

MALAYSIA

MACAU

President Luis meets with H.E. General Vasco Rocha Vieira, governor of Macau. Right: Yan-Kee Cheng, governor of R.I. District 3450.

JAPAN

In Kobe, President Luis helps youngsters prepare a special meal at their school, which receives assistance from local Rotarians and Interactors. The Rotary leader was in Kobe to attend a 1-2 December Presidential Visit for New Generations, this one with a focus on Interact and its role in young people's lives. A highlight of the visit was a panel discussion in which Interactors from four Rotary districts talked about issues concerning school, family, social, and club life.

Also in Kuala Lumpur, President Luis recognizes Malaysia's king, Tuanku Ja'afar Ibni Al-Marhum Tuanku Abdul Rahman, with the crystal sculpture accompanying the R.I. Presidential Award for Humanitarian Service.

HONG KONG

During a late-November visit to R.I. District 3450 (Hong Kong and Macau), President Giay meets with former Rotary Foundation Ambassadorial Scholar Rosanna Wong and presents her with a plaque that recognizes her contributions to international understanding. Rosanna is the current convenor of the Executive Council of Hong Kong.
