6 November 2026

In an email to graduates, Professor Christopher Chao (趙汝恆教授), Dean of Engineering at the University of Hong Kong, appraised the School's distinguished alumnus: "Dr. Chow ... ... passionately and selflessly dedicated himself to his alma mater and Hong Kong," the email read. "His wonderful and gentle soul will forever remain in our hearts and he will be sorely missed."

Ir. Dr. Joseph Chow Ming-Kuen (工程師周明權博士), OBE, *Hon*DEng (HKPolyU), CEng, RPE, FHKIE, FICE, FIStructE, FCIT, BSc(Eng) (HKU), JP, was a civil and structural engineer by profession. He was a Senior Active member of Hong Kong Island West Rotary Club (香港西區扶輪社) and served the Club as President in 1987-1988. He passed away in Hong Kong on 13 October 2018 after lung cancer battle, aged 77.

Chow is survived by his wife, former member of Hong Kong Urban/Executive/Legislative Councils, The Honourable Selina Chow Liang Shuk-Yee (周梁淑怡議員), and their two daughters.

Chow obtained a Bachelor Degree of Science (Engineering), in 1964 from the University of Hong Kong (HKU) and had spent almost 50 years in the design, construction and management of many major local and international infrastructural and building projects. He founded JMK Consulting Engineers in 1992.

As a student, Chow was elected Chairman of the HKU Engineering Society and organized its Golden Anniversary Celebrations in 1962 – a role he would reprise for the Faculty's Centenary Celebrations in 2012. He was the Founding President of the HKU Engineering Alumni Association and had served the University, inter alia, as a Court Member, Founding Senior Member of the HKU Foundation, and a HKU Mentor to its students. Chow was honored in 2013 by the University conferring the title of Honorary University Fellow, in recognition of his contributions to the University and to the community. The Fellowships are a means for the University community to thank and salute the lives of those who have made important contributions in their own unique ways to the University, to academia, and to Hong Kong.

Chow also held several public offices. In his profession, he had been the President 2001-2002 of the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers; Chairman of the Hong Kong Engineers Registration Board and the Hong Kong Construction Workers Registration Authority.

To the community, Chow had been Chairman (1996-2003) of the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority; and Chairman of the Governing Committee of the Pamela Youde Nethersole Eastern Hospital. He had also served, inter alia, as a member of the Housing Authority; Hospital Authority; Chinese Medicine Council and Education Commission. He had been the Deputy Chairman of Council of The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, which conferred him Doctor of Engineering (honoris causa) in 1999. He was also a Senior Superintendent of the Royal Hong Kong Auxiliary Police Force (皇家香港輔助警察隊榮譽高級警司).

Chow was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Hong Kong (J.P.) in 1992 by the Hong Kong Governor Chris Patten (香港總督彭定康), and was later appointed in 1997 by Queen Elizabeth II of the United Kingdom an Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (O.B.E.).

Chow had over 40 years of experience in the planning, design and construction of many major engineering projects in the United Kingdom, Middle East, China Mainland and Hong Kong. He was the Independent Non-Executive Chairman of Joseph Chow & Partners Ltd., and was also Independent Non-Executive Director of Chevalier International Holdings Limited; Build King Holdings Limited; Road King Infrastructure Limited; and Harbour Centre Development Limited, etc.

Founding President

Dr. Joseph Chow is a civil and structural engineer by profession and graduated from The University of Hong Kong (HKU) with a B.Sc.(Eng.) degree in 1964. He received his initial training from Scott & Wilson, Kirkpatrick & Partners in London and Glasgow and has spent almost 50 years in the design, construction and management of many major infrastructural and building projects in the UK, Hong Kong, Middle East and the Mainland. He founded his own practice, JMK Consulting Engineers, in 1992. Although he has retired from JMK, he remains its Independent Non-Executive Chairman. He now also sits on the boards of several listed companies as INED.

Dr. Chow has demonstrated his leadership qualities even when he was just a student. He was elected Chairman of the HKU Engineering Society and organized the Golden Anniversary Celebrations for the Faculty of Engineering in 1962. Interestingly, exactly 50 years later, he chaired the Faculty's Centenary Celebrations Organising Committee in 2012. In 1975, he started the HKU Engineering Alumni Association and became its Founding President.

As a professional engineer, Dr. Chow served as the Chairman of the HK Engineers Registration Board, the President of the HK Institution of Engineers and the Chairman of the HK Construction Workers Registration Authority. He also served as the Deputy Chairman of Council and was instrumental in the upgrading of the Polytechnic to the present day HK Polytechnic University. For services rendered, the PolyU awarded him an Honorary Doctor of Engineering degree.

Outside engineering, Dr. Chow served in many different capacities including being Chairman of the HK Examinations and Assessment Authority, Chairman of the Governing Committee of the Pamela Youde Nethersole Eastern Hospital as well as Chairman of the HK Country Club. He also served as a member of the Housing Authority, Hospital Authority, Chinese Medicine Council, Education Commission and other statutory boards and committees.

Few people would have guessed that Dr. Chow also served as an auxiliary police officer for many years and rose from the rank of a Police Constable to Senior Superintendent. He was Hon. Aide-de-camp to a former Governor, Lord David Wilson of Tillyorn.

For his contributions to the community as a whole, Dr. Chow was made an Unofficial Justice of the Peace in 1992 and awarded an Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE), which he received from HRH Prince Charles in 1997.

In 2013, Dr. Chow was made an Honorary University Fellow of HKU. He is also a proud alumnus of Hornell Hall and the inaugural President of the Hornell Hall Alumni Association Charitable Fund Limited.

RotaryAnn Selina

Dr. The Honourable Mrs. Selina Chow Liang Shuk-Yee (周梁淑怡), GBS, OBE, *Hon*DHum (HSUHK), ADB, LRAM, BA (HKU), JP, is a veteran public service leader and a trailblazer in Hong Kong's media industry. For decades, she has been actively engaged in television and broadcasting, public affairs and community work. She has held senior management positions at Television Broadcasts Limited (電視廣播有限公司) (1967-1977), Commercial Television (佳藝電視) (1977-1978) and Asia Television Limited (亞洲電視) (1988-1991). Through her creativity and innovative approach, she played a pivotal role in advancing Hong Kong's television and media industry, while mentoring generations of artistes and media professionals, and making significant contributions to the cultural and creative industries. Selina was involved in the production of numerous widely acclaimed TV programmes, including《Enjoy Yourself Tonight 歡樂今宵》,《Hotel 狂潮》and《A House Is Not A Home 家變》. These productions were not only immensely popular but also became part of the collective cultural memory of generations of Hong Kong people, helping to lay the foundation for Hong Kong's television industry.

In public service, Selina served as a Member of the Executive Council (行政局) and served in both the former Legislative Council (立法局) and the Legislative Council (立法會) of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region for a total of 27 years. She also served as an advisor to the China's Government as a member of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference for 12 years until 2017. She held numerous positions on public bodies, including Chairman of the Consumer Council, Chairman of the Hong Kong Tourism Board, Chairman of the Quality Tourism Services Association Committee, and member of the Hong Kong Housing Authority, the Education Commission, the Board of the Airport Authority Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Trade Development Council. Through these roles, she made significant contributions to Hong Kong's social and economic development.

Selina has earned distinction in both the media and public service sectors. Her achievements exemplify outstanding leadership, a strong commitment to social responsibility and a lasting dedication to community service, earning her widespread respect across multiple sectors. She was awarded the Gold Bauhinia Star by the HKSAR Government in recognition of her distinguished service.

On 30 October 2026, Selina was conferred Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa, by The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (香港恒生大學).

Education and television career

Selina was born on 25 January 1945 in the British Crown Colony Hong Kong. She was educated at St. Paul's Co-educational College (聖保羅男女中學) and earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Hong Kong (香港大學) in 1965. She later obtained a postgraduate diploma from the Rose Bruford College of Speech and Drama and Licentiateship in Drama (Teacher and Performer) of the Royal Academy of Music in the United Kingdom.

Selina started her career in Hong Kong's television broadcasting industry as the first weather girl in Hong Kong at the first wireless TV station Television Broadcasts Limited (TVB) in 1967. She was an assistant producer at TVB in Broadcast Drive for the English and Chinese channels under General Manager Colin Bednall (貝諾) before being promoted to Assistant General Manager to run the entire programming section.

Thinking her career in TVB had reached the glass ceiling, Selina left TVB in 1977 and joined Commercial Television (CTV) as General Manager in an attempt to resurrect the ailing station, along with around 200 former TVB personnel including Tsui Hark (徐克), Patrick Tam (譚家明) and Ringo Lam (林嶺東) in a bidding war between CTV and TVB. However, despite spending HK$50 million on production in just three years, CTV was unable to survive in the highly competitive television broadcasting industry and ceased transmissions in 1978. After she left CTV, Selina codirected her only feature film, 《有你冇你 No Big Deal》 in 1979, a teen comedy, with Po-Chih Leong (梁普智).

In August 1988, Lai Sun Group (麗新集團) founder Lim Por-Yen (林百欣) took over Asia Television (ATV) and hired Selina as the station's Chief Executive. Selina proceeded in the same month to unveil a HK$233 million six-year investment plan to improve ATV's competitive edge against TVB. Selina's first year in office saw ATV's annual budget rocket to an estimated HK$300–350 million, just HK$100–150 million less than TVB. It also poached many talents from TVB, including comedy stars Lydia Shum (沈殿霞) and Eric Tsang (曾志偉), as well as producers, technical staff and administrators. The growing deficit sapped Selina's power as Chief Executive and in March 1991 she was formally dismissed and replaced by Lam Por-Yen himself.

Legislative Council

Colonial period

Selina first stepped into politics when she was appointed to the Urban Council (市政局) in 1980. She was subsequently appointed to the Legislative Council (立法局) in 1981 by Hong Kong Governor Sir Murray MacLehose (香港總督麥理浩爵士). She also held numerous public offices at the time, including the membership of the Law Reform Commission (香港法律改革委員會), the Housing Authority (香港房屋委員會) and the Education Commission (香港教育統籌委員會), as well as the chairmanship of the Consumer Council (香港消費者委員會).

In 1991, Selina was appointed to the Executive Council (行政局), the top advisory board in the government, by Hong Kong Governor Sir David Wilson (香港總督衛奕信爵士). She resigned the following year after the arrival of the last Governor Chris Patten (香港總督彭定康) who wanted to reshuffle the Council. Selina was also a member of the Co-operative Resources Centre (CRC) (啟聯資源中心) headed by Senior Member of the Legislative Council Allen Lee (李鵬飛) consisting of the appointed members who aimed to counter the rise of the United Democrats of Hong Kong (香港民主同盟) in the legislature after their landslide victory in the first ever direct election in 1991.

The CRC soon transformed into the Liberal Party (自由黨) to actively lobby against Chris Patten's constitutional reform proposal, which they thought would damage the smooth transfer of sovereignty of Hong Kong due to Beijing's strong opposition. In the 1995 Legislative Council election, Selina contested in the Wholesale and Retail functional constituency and won the seat against Wong Kwok-Hing (王國興) of the Beijing-loyalist Democratic Alliance for the Betterment of Hong Kong (DAB) (民主建港協進聯盟/民建聯). She was later elected to the Beijing-controlled Provisional Legislative Council (臨時期限立法會) after the dismantling of the "through train" of the last colonial Legislative Council.

Special Administrative Region period

In the first Special Administrative Region (SAR) Legislative Council (立法會) election in 1998, Allen Lee resigned as Liberal Party chairman lost in the direct election. James Tien (田北俊) succeeded as chairman and Selina became Party Vice-chairwoman. After 1997, the Liberal Party became the partner in Tung Chee-Hwa's (董建華) "governing coalition" which saw Selina being appointed to the Hong Kong Tourist Association (香港旅遊協會) before it was transformed into the Hong Kong Tourism Board (香港旅遊發展局) in 2001.

Selina has also been a board member of the Hong Kong Airport Authority (香港機場管理局), honorary adviser to Against Child Abuse (防止虐待兒童會), and director of the Hong Kong Intellectual Property Society (香港知識產權會). As the most senior member in the Legislative Council, she was also the chairwoman of the House Committee of the Legislative Council from 2000 to 2003. From 2003 to 2008, she was also a member of the 10th National Committee of Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (中國人民政治協商會議全國委員會委員).

Public opposition to the national security legislation of the《Basic Law Article 23》, and the historic 2003 July 1st protest against it, led to the resignation of Liberal Party chairman James Tien from the Executive Council on 6 July. Without Liberal support in the legislature, the government was short of sufficient votes to pass the bill, which it later shelved. In September 2003, Selina was appointed to the Executive Council (行政會議) to fill Tien's vacancy.

Selina, the then-chairwoman of Liberal Party, in 2008

Riding on the popularity from the 2003 crisis, Selina and Tien left their trade-based functional constituencies and ran in geographical constituencies. Selina won a seat in New Territories West with more than 50,000 votes, more than 10 per cent of the vote share, and was elected with Tien.

In the 2008 Legislative Council election, Selina lost her re-election in the New Territories West by receiving only about 21,000 votes, ending her 27 years of service in the legislature. Selina blamed the loss of her seat on Heung Yee Kuk (新界鄉議局) chairman and Liberal Party member Lau Wong-Fat (劉皇發) for canvassing for the DAB candidate Cheung Hok-Ming (張學明) during the elections. As a result, both Tien and Selina resigned from the Party organ with Selina also resigned from the Executive Council.

After Legislative Council

Selina and James Tien returned to the Party leadership after the intra-Party split between James's brother Michael Tien (田北辰) and Tommy Cheung (張宇人) over the Minimum Wage Bill which resulted Michael's departure from the Party. In January 2011, Selina succeeded Tommy Cheung as the Vice-chairwoman for the second time. In the 2012 Chief Executive election, the Liberals initially supported their former member and Chief Secretary for Administration Henry Tang (唐英年) but withdrew their support after Henry Tang's illegal basement controversy. However, they refused to support another Beijing-supported candidate Leung Chun-Ying (梁振英). Selina and party chairwoman Miriam Lau (劉健儀) defended their null vote as "the responsible decision" as they could not with all conscience vote for either Tang or Leung. Their internal poll of 1,900 people showed 30 percent would cast blank votes.

After Miriam Lau was defeated in Hong Kong Island in the 2012 Legislative Council election and resigned as Party Chairwoman, Selina was elected Chairwoman, unopposed, on 15 December 2012. Under her chairmanship, the new office of Party leader was created and assumed by James Tien. She held the chairmanship for two years until she was succeeded by Felix Chung (鍾國斌) and became the Party honorary chairwoman.

In the 2017 Chief Executive election, Selina split with other Party figures in the election to nominate former Financial Secretary John Tsang (曾俊華) on the capacity as an Election Committee member for Wholesale and Retail with James Tien, Miriam Lau and Felix Chung against the former Chief Secretary for Administration, the Beijing-supported Carrie Lam (林鄭月娥).

Family

Selina is married to engineer Joseph Chow Ming-Kuen, having proposed on the phone when he was in Britain in 1968. The couple has two daughters, Chee-May (周智美) and Chee-Kay (周智琪). They also have five grandchildren.

Mrs Selina Chow, an icon of innovativeness and visionary leadership, revolutionised Hong Kong's television industry with ground breaking programmes that deeply resonated with local audiences. Her dedication extended into nearly five decades of distinguished public service, where she consistently prioritised the public good over political convenience. Mrs Chow's courage and commitment to the community are evident in her landmark initiatives and political contributions, reflecting her unwavering dedication to social progress and the betterment of Hong Kong society.

Mrs Chow graduated with a BA in English from The University of Hong Kong. She subsequently pursued professional training in the United Kingdom, obtaining a postgraduate diploma from Rose Bruford College of Speech and Drama and a Licentiateship in Drama (Teacher and Performer) from the Royal Academy of Music. Her passion in performing arts brought her to start her career in Television Broadcasts Limited (TVB), where she started as an assistant and rose swiftly to become an independent producer-director. She was remarked as the role model of Hong Kong's first generation of television professionals.

Being a visionary producer-director, Mrs Chow transformed the TVB Channel "Pearl" from an English-language channel with primarily expats as viewers to a popular channel that also served local Chinese. She expanded the reach of audiences by introducing acclaimed overseas dramas with Chinese subtitles, reversing financial losses and gaining critical acclaim. Trained in the UK, she pioneered dynamic production techniques, advancing realistic dramas like Hotel (《狂潮》). Known for her relentless innovation — nicknamed "周日新" (signifying "creative ideas daily") — Mrs Chow emphasises creative media programmes rooted in real-life observation and element of surprise.

Through her innovativeness and perceptiveness, Mrs Chow developed numerous popular drama series, sports programmes, news, commercials, variety shows, and talk shows, that were first-of-its-kind yet with strong local character. Among these were acclaimed programmes such as Enjoy Yourself Tonight (《歡樂今宵》), The Hui Brothers Show (《雙星報喜》), Miss Hong Kong Pageant (《香港小姐競選》) and A House Is Not a Home (《家變》). She helped develop an advertising-funded free-to-air television model, supplemented by the overseas sale of programmes, which contributed to the growth of Hong Kong's local television industry.

Mrs Chow later on made the transition from a creative leader in television to a public service leader. She served as a Member of the Executive Council and served in both the former Legislative Council and the Legislative Council of the HKSAR for a total of 27 years. She also served as an advisor to the Central Government as a member of the National Committee of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference for 12 years. She held numerous positions on public bodies, including Chairman of the Consumer Council, Chairman of the Hong Kong Tourism Board, Chairman of the Quality Tourism Services Association Committee, and member of the Hong Kong Housing Authority, the Education Commission, the Board of the Airport Authority Hong Kong and the Hong Kong Trade Development Council. Through these roles, she made significant contributions to Hong Kong's social and economic development and was awarded the Gold Bauhinia Star by the HKSAR Government in 2002.

During her tenure as a public service leader, she upheld the principles of rationality, respect and fairness. She emphasised that legislators should be critically constructive: speaking objectively and rationally for their constituents and the public, rather than seeking mere popularity. When she saw gaps in government policies or proposed legislation, she would voice out to the Government for improvement. Although the legislature contained clear differences between political parties, Mrs Chow earned trust and respect across the political spectrum, evidenced by her elected role as the Chairman of House Committee of the Legislative Council for the 2000-01 session. This demonstrated cross-camp confidence in her impartial principle of upholding what is right rather than favouring one's own side.

Mrs Chow has a strong sense of righteousness. In 1997, amidst strong opposition from local doctors and the Government, she courageously proposed the Medical Registration (Transitional Provisions) Bill, which aimed to enable medical students already studying at recognised Commonwealth institutions to return to Hong Kong to practise without having to sit for the licentiate examination, as this was a promise previously made to them. Mrs Chow stood firmly with affected parents and medical students and tirelessly lobbied political groups to support the Bill. Her principled advocacy led to its passage that provided for a grandfathering arrangement that opened the door for the return of 1,000 doctors trained by renowned medical institutions.

Mrs Chow regards integrity as the fundamental standard of public service, believing that an ideal public servant must consistently act with Hong Kong's best interests in mind, rather than personal gain or loss. Extending this principle to the younger generation, she advises them not to focus solely on immediate rewards. Instead, she encourages young people to reflect on whether, decades from now, they will look back and feel that they have achieved meaningful purposes and served their mission.

Chairman, in recognition of Mrs Selina Chow's significant contributions and achievement in both the media and public service sectors, I am honoured to present Mrs Selina Chow to you for the conferment of Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa.

中學畢業後，周梁淑怡到英國羅斯布魯佛朗誦及戲劇學院研究院（Rose Bruford College of Speech & Drama）學習，獲授院士；並且在英國皇家音樂學院戲劇院(Royal Academy of Music)進階學習，獲授院士，擔任教師及演員。當她在 1966 年大學畢業後，考慮過投身廣告界。適逢無綫電視為開台仍準備而公開招聘人才，周梁淑怡遂應徵電視台。

周梁淑怡是香港第一代資深電視人，是無綫電視開台階段的領軍人物。除了為香港培養了無數幕前幕後的電視人才，她製作過不少膾炙人口的電視劇如《狂潮》、《家變》等，至今仍為人津津樂道。她在 1966 年入職無綫電視，是電視台開台的三十多位員工之一。其中一位澳洲籍的總經理 Collins Bednall 有意加設一個報告天氣的環節，其時到電視台面試的梁淑怡被安排擔任第一位天氣女郎一年，於新聞部工作。同期跟隨梁普智學做製作助理。周梁淑怡自 1974 年出任節目發展主任；一年後升任節目及製作經理；1976 年至 1977 年期間出任助理總經理。她跳槽至佳藝電視前，於 1973 年與許冠文、鄧偉雄以及劉天賜策劃了「香港小姐競選」。

1978 年初，佳藝電視以高薪羅致本來已打算離開電視業界且已辭職的周梁淑怡出任總經理，但一年後因「七月攻勢」計畫失敗與「佳視六君子」引咎辭職。1980 年代初，她出任富才製作有限公司主席及行政總裁。後於 1987 年被林百欣邀請出任亞洲電視行政總裁，到 1991 年任董事及顧問，1993 年離任。出任富才製作有限公司高層期間為亞洲電視策劃「亞洲小姐競選」、「電視先生競選」、「歌手及模特兒選秀比賽」等節目。至 2009 年 9 月，她再次踏入電視圈，每週主持有線電視財經資訊台節目《周梁有請》。

1975 年，周梁淑怡為《歡樂今宵》製作了與社區互動的派發棉被活動。結果被政府高官相中其應對社區關係的能力，於是邀請她擔任廉政公署社區關係市民諮詢委員會委員和撲滅罪行委員會委員。

1980 年代初，由於香港總督麥理浩爵士(Sir Murray MacLehose)認為她在委員會的表現不錯，便主動聯絡周梁淑怡，邀請她在 1981 年加入香港立法局，開啟了其從政之路。她在 1981 年被委任為香港立法局議員，後來出選功能組別。自 1981 年，她便歷任立法局議員、臨時立法會議員與立法會議員，是香港有史以來擔任香港立法機關時間最長的議員，亦是前行政局非官守議員。周梁淑怡在 2000 年被委任為香港旅遊協會主席；2001 年旅遊協會改組為香港旅遊發展局後，她繼續出任主席。任內致力加強旅遊發展局與業界的聯繫，聯手推廣香港旅遊。在 2003 年嚴重急性呼吸道症候群（Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome,SARS）疫症期間，香港旅遊業陷入低谷，經過旅發局與業界的努力，旅遊業發展才逐步回復。

2003 年，自由黨因民情轉而反對二十三條立法，她的民望非常高。故在 2004 年香港立法會選舉，第一次代表自由黨於新界西參與地區直選，首次成為地區直選立法會議員。2008 年香港立法會選舉，周梁淑怡在新界西地區直選中落敗。決定辭去自由黨副主席，未幾向時任行政長官曾蔭權辭去行政會議成員。曾蔭權當時表示會因應政治形勢，對其請辭作出慎重考慮。最終，曾蔭權於 9 月 19 日接納其請辭。在 2012 年 12 月，周梁淑怡在沒有競爭的情況下，自動當選自由黨主席，接替因落選立法會議員而在 9 月辭任主席的劉健儀。而立法會議員方剛及鍾國斌，則擔任副主席。其後重返立法會的田北俊成為首任自由黨黨魁，自由黨正式實施「黨政分家」。

2022 年 8 月 10 日，田北俊、周梁淑怡及劉健儀等人，因不滿自由黨黨方計劃撤銷榮譽主席頭銜，遂宣布退出自由黨，三人並一同辭去自由黨榮譽主席。

周梁淑怡女士領導才能出眾，勇於創新，獨具遠見，曾製作多個開創先河的電視節目，深刻觸動本地觀眾，革新了香港電視業。此後，她投身公職近50載，期間表現卓著，始終以公眾福祉為依歸，不為政治便利而妥協。她的勇氣與服務社群的擔當，在其重大倡議與政界功績之中體現無遺，彰顯她對社會進步及香港整體社會福祉的堅定承擔。

周梁淑怡女士畢業於香港大學，獲頒文學士(榮譽)(英文)學位，其後赴英深造，接受專業訓練，取得英國羅斯布魯佛朗誦及戲劇學院深造文憑，以及皇家音樂學院戲劇高級文憑（教師及演員）。她對表演藝術滿腔熱忱，其後加入電視廣播有限公司（無綫電視），由助理做起，並迅速晉升至獨立監製兼編導，獲公認為香港第一代電視人的楷模。

周梁淑怡女士是極具遠見的監製兼編導，無綫電視明珠台本為主要服務外籍觀眾的英語頻道，她成功將其轉型為大受本地華人歡迎的熱門頻道。她引入附設中文字幕的優質海外劇集，擴大觀眾群，令公司轉虧為盈並贏得業界讚譽。她得益於在英期間的訓練，開創了動態製作技術，推動了如《狂潮》等寫實劇集的發展。她以不懈創新而聞名——故得「周日新」的雅號（寓意「每日一新」）。她亦時常強調創意媒體節目應植根於生活常態，並融入出人意表的元素。

她製作了無數受歡迎的劇集、體育節目、新聞、廣告、綜藝及清談節目，皆屬開創先河，並富濃厚本地特色，當中包括大獲好評的《歡樂今宵》、《雙星報喜》、《香港小姐競選》及《家變》等經典力作。她協助建立以廣告收入支撐免費電視營運的模式，加上把節目外銷，促進了香港本地電視業的發展。

其後，周梁淑怡女士由電視界的創意先鋒轉型為公職領袖。她曾任行政會議成員，並先後服務於前立法局及香港特別行政區立法會，共計長達27年。她亦曾連續12年擔任中國人民政治協商會議全國委員會委員，為中央政府建言獻議。此外，她曾在多個公共機構擔任公職，包括消費者委員會主席、香港旅遊發展局主席、優質旅遊服務協會委員會主席，以及香港房屋委員會委員、教育統籌委員會委員、香港機場管理局董事會成員、香港貿易發展局理事會成員等。她對香港社會與經濟發展貢獻非凡，在2002年獲香港特區政府頒授金紫荊星章。

在擔任公共服務領袖期間，周梁淑怡女士始終秉持理性、尊重、公平的原則。她強調立法者既要思想周密，亦需具建設性；換言之，應以客觀理性的方式為自己的選民和公眾發聲，不應單純追求個人聲望。每當發現政府政策或擬議法例有不足之處，她必會向政府直言進諫，促請改善。儘管立法會內各政黨壁壘分明，她仍於2000至2001年度會期獲選為立法會內務委員會主席，可見她贏得跨黨派信任與尊重，亦說明各方陣營均相信她會秉持「堅持正義、不偏私己」的公正原則。

周梁淑怡女士視誠信為公共服務的根本準則，深信理想的公僕必須以香港的最佳利益為依歸，而非計較個人得失。她亦以此原則勉勵年輕一代，勿只著重眼前回報，而應思考數十年後回望時，能否感到自己完成了人生重要目標、履行了天職使命。
